THE CRY! REVEAL 2015 SUMMER TOUR DATES

New Album Dangerous Game (U.S. Edition) Out Now

Los Angeles, CA, July 15, 2015 — After an extensive and successful tour in Europe earlier this year, Portland, OR's most dynamic and dangerous rock band The CRY! will embark on an extensive national headline tour—The Dangerous Game Summer '15 Tour—this August.

It kicks off with a bang on Tuesday, August 4, at Hotel Utah in San Francisco, CA, continues through major markets across North America, and comes to a close on Saturday, September 19, at The Toad in Denver, CO. The current routing is below, more tour dates TBA. If you haven't caught the group live, this is the best chance to witness them up-close and personal. They're known for their catchy songs and their performances are full of life and energy; capturing the feel of their live show is a vibrant experience. "The CRY! will restore your faith in the future of rock n roll," said Terry Currier, the owner of indie record store Music Millennium in Portland, OR.

The CRY! unveiled their full-length album, Dangerous Game (U.S. edition), in 2014 through the band's imprint Top Shelf, distributed by Von Artists. It immediately garnered praise from tastemakers such as Classic Rock, who claimed, "Dangerous Game is a non-stop joyride of everything you've ever loved about music. It's got girls on roller skates, it's got puking in alleys, it's got ruffled shirts, Johnny Thunders, American cars, Creem Magazine, cigarettes, and T. Rex. It's the best album Hanoi Rocks never made. Holy fuckin' rock'n'roll." Meanwhile, the boys received praise from the likes of Power PopAholiC, Goldmine, Punktastic, and more.

Are you ready to play the Dangerous Game this summer with The CRY!?

For the unfamiliar, The CRY! features founding members Ray Nelsen (guitar, vocals) and Brian Crace (lead guitar, vocals), and fellow band members include Michael "Corsh" Cortichiato (bass, background vocals), Joey Brewley (drums), and Victor Franco (keys, guitar, vocals). They first smashed onto the scene with their self-titled debut in 2011, which received widespread critical acclaim from Rolling Stone and Maximum Rock'n'Roll. Mooster Records released their "Discotheque" 7-inch vinyl, and it became the label's fastest-selling release to date. They've also been tapped for a high-profile Cheap Trick tribute, as well as the Animal House of Blues documentary, and recorded the official 50th anniversary version of "Louie Louie" with Mike Mitchell of the Kingsmen for Viacom. They've performed with the Strypes, Paul Collins, and Walter Lure and the Waldos, and can't wait to finally get on the road and shake it up on their home soil.
